Entertaining quiz

Inspired by the well-known Swedish TV show, we have created an entertaining and engaging quiz where the strengths of the entire team come into play.

Here, it's not just about general knowledge, but equally about teamwork, attentiveness, and the ability to think quickly under pressure.

During the activity, you'll embark on an exciting and varied journey to every corner of the globe. Our host will welcome you, divide you into teams, and guide you safely through the different stages of the competition. On a large screen, film clips, audio tracks, and visual clues will be shown, gradually revealing which city or location we have "arrived" at. When someone thinks they've solved the puzzle, speed is key - a correct guess can give the team an important advantage.

After each completed destination, tricky follow-up questions await, putting both your logic and teamwork to the test. Here, everyone can contribute - whether you are a seasoned traveler or not, have a sharp eye for detail, or simply happen to recognize a building from a past trip.

This is an activity that creates energy, brings out laughter, and strengthens the sense of togetherness within the group. It's light-hearted, fun, and inclusive - while still awakening the competitive spirit. Sit back, relax, and join us on a memorable tour around the world, where every stop offers new surprises.
