

RIB Transport

Turn the transport into an adventure

Imagine the feeling of the wind in your hair and fresh air as the boat whizzes across the water. It's impossible to escape the adventurous, thrilling feeling that comes with riding a RIB.

A transport with us is not about getting from point A to point B, but about an experience in itself. We take you quickly and efficiently to your destination while giving you an adventurous journey through the Stockholm archipelago.

Our experienced drivers will take you through the open seas and narrow straits of the archipelago, as if it were their own back pocket. Join us on one of the archipelago's most fast-paced and exciting boat experiences.

The RIB boats master all types of sea, and with the power and maneuverability of the engines, it almost feels like you are flying close above the water's surface. It is a feeling of freedom and euphoria that you can only experience here – at sea, in the grip of the wind.

All passengers are equipped with a flotation suit, life jacket, goggles and hat, so you can concentrate on enjoying the trip.
