CREATIVE TEAMBUILDING EXERCISES

In today's ever changing world the demands on the organization and co-workers are higher than ever. We have created group dynamic exercises that requires engagement, trust, communication and co-operation.

Involve – Everyone is needed in "The knot" to successfully complete the task. Everyone is holding their hands around a rope as they shall make a knot on the middle of the rope.

Trust – "Acid river" is all about trust and team work. The group shall cross a river of acid without losing anything or anyone in the toxic river.

Communicate – The participants will become aware of how hard and important good communication really is. Can they make a perfect square in pitch black conditions?

Co-operate – "The hook" requires perfect co-operation. What one person does affects everyone else. The mission is to move objects from one place to another.
